Italians Attempt to Carry Their Threats into Execution.

The Negroes of Spring Valley Are Run Out of Town by the Mob.

Innocent women and children driven from homes they were able to find. The Negroes of Spring Valley are run out of town by the mob.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 7.—The Italian miners of Spring Valley made an attempt to carry out their resolution of Monday to expel the colored people remaining in the city, and the result was one of the most disgraceful outrages ever perpetrated in this country. Innocent women and children were driven from their homes, abused, insulted and about and despoiled. The affair outside of Spring Valley has created a sensation and the news soon spread. Condemnation of the proceedings are coming from every quarter. The "location" presented a dismal scene during the latter part of the day. Wagons were hurrying about gathering up household goods and carrying them off on the principal highway.

During the time Martin Delmarco, the Italian mayor, accompanied by several Italian members of the police, were the grounds waiting for the mob. Mayor Delmarco said he was there to see that the Negroes got away peacefully, but if this was his purpose, he did not accomplish it.

At 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon Sheriff Clark of Princeton received a message from Gov. Altgeld asking for information on the situation and wished to know what was being done by the officers of the law. Sheriff Clark replied, giving a brief history of the events that have transpired, being substantially in accordance with the reports printed in these columns. He said the situation was such that he had not even been called upon by the mayor for assistance.

At 5 o'clock the committee appointed at Monday's mass meeting to see that the Negroes were out of the town by 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, commenced operations. Going to the "location" where only women, children and invalids were left, they notified these to have their traps ready and be out in time of two hours. Many of the slow were roughly handled and their goods kicked about and broken up. The same circumstances prevailed over every part of the town. The Negroes lived or had taken refuge. As the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy passenger train pulled into the city Tuesday afternoon, a lot of Negro refugees who had been waiting for the train boarded the cars like a lot of wild animals in fear of their pursuers.

Among the number was a woman, about fifty years old, accompanied by three little children, who were terrified almost to insanity. The woman said her husband had been abused and herself chased to the depot by a mob of Italians who had threatened to kill her.

Superintendent Pickett, who had been given the city an order on the county treasurer for the purpose of paying the wages, which he had arranged to be made good at the railroad depot. The old lady had received her ticket, but when the train pulled out, she found she was suffering to such an extent that she tore up the ticket unhesitatingly. Her baggage was strewn about the depot platform and she was left alone. Her husband was among the number who was chased out of Spring Valley during the assault of the Italians last Monday and he was among the six who are still missing.

The indications are that the strike of the miners at Spring Valley will be continued for some time. It is said that the train will not leave until the train is loaded with coal. The train was held at the depot until the train was loaded with coal. The train was held at the depot until the train was loaded with coal.

In Spring Valley the rumor was current Tuesday night that the train will visit the city himself Wednesday to inspect the situation personally before taking action in regard to calling out the state troops.

WILD WEST SHOW.
Wind Storm wrecks the tent and in the panic that ensued several persons were hurt. Oswego, N. Y., Aug. 7.—While Buffalo Bill's Wild West show was giving a performance before 12,000 people here Tuesday afternoon, a terrific wind and rain storm struck the town. The immense dressing tent was blown down to tatters and many of the men were injured.

Following this the east half of the away-and-covered grand stand was blown away, and the 6,000 people sheltered in that part of the stand, stood down on the ground in a panic. Many women and children were trampled upon and badly hurt, but were soon assisted away to their homes. The law was kept in place during the excitement. The show was kept going in spite of the sheets of rain which swept across the field. Among the severely injured was the play of the show named Brown, who is at the hospital with a fractured skull. A little girl was nearly drowned before assistance reached her. Mrs. Flanagan had her head badly cut by a flying log.

CROP REPORTS.

Made by the Directors of the State Weather Service.

Prospects For An Exceptionally Good Corn Crop Continues Flattering.

The reports received by telegraph at Chicago are:

Chicago, Aug. 7.—The reports as to the conditions of the crops throughout the country and the general influence of the weather on the growth and harvest, were Tuesday made by the directors of the different state weather services.

The general outlook for an exceptionally good corn crop continues flattering. Except in the Dakotas and Minnesota where it is somewhat late and in Indiana, where it is maturing slowly, the crop is generally in advance of the season and early crops are practically made over the southern portion of the corn belt.

In Indiana, where corn is maturing slowly, the condition is, in Ohio the outlook is less favorable, being poor in the uplands and on clay soils. Kentucky reports crop prospects bright. Tennessee is in good condition in Virginia and growing rapidly in Kentucky and continues in excellent condition in Maryland, but in Ohio the outlook is less favorable.

Light frosts occurred in northern Indiana on July 30 and 31. No damage reported except slight injury to corn and grain. Brought conditions in Ohio, Pennsylvania, southern Texas and in portions of Maryland and the Carolinas, where crops are seriously affected.

Kentucky—Temperature and sunshine beneficial. Rain fell in eastern portion. Corn and grain in good condition and quantity. Damage done in shock. Tobacco growing rapidly. Corn prospects perian unprecedented. Apples and pears poor. Fall potatoes, beans, potatoes improved.

Ohio—Drought, with cool nights. Corn fair on low lands and black soil and in spring, but dry and unproductive. Tobacco is not doing well. Free frosts cooling. Crops retrograding.

Indiana—Cool, fair weather and local showers in central portions of the day. Light frosts from July 30 and 31. Corn in good condition, maturing slowly. Tobacco in good condition. Local frosts, that threatening near future.

MASS MEETING.
The colored men of Chicago, Ind. People, for their brethren at Spring Valley.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—In response to a call for their brethren at Spring Valley, over 200 Negroes assembled at 50 State street at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. The call declared that the time had come for the colored people to raise their arms in defense of their country. "We must remember that this is our country," says the call, "and we must defend it with our lives and property. We must remember that this is our country, and we must defend it with our lives and property."

Ben. George W. Dickey, pastor of the Negro chapel, addressed the meeting, counseling moderation. He asked that the men be ready to be patient and stand with the law. "Then Wm. Johnson spoke, urging violent redress upon the Italian miners. He said that the miners were being treated as slaves and that the colored people should stand with them. He said that the miners were being treated as slaves and that the colored people should stand with them."

While waiting a reply from Gov. Altgeld, a lawyer by the name of John W. Walters spoke from the platform to the Negroes. He said it was not the Italians who were to blame, but the mine owners. This was taken as being in defense of the foreigners and there was a rush made for him in which 100 men took part. There were shouts of "kill him," "hang him," "lynch him," and "throw him out," and for a few minutes it looked bad for Walters. The door being blocked he made his escape through a plate glass window with no serious injury than a few cuts from the broken glass.

Whisky is the agency that furnishes fathers with drunken, worthless sons.

Nothing causes a father to go so fast as a drunken, trifling boy.

Liquor is the agency that causes mothers long, sleepless nights and weary, sorrowful days.

Rum is the agency that causes a city to double its police force and treble those houses of call and restraint.

Selfishness is the thing that impels the responsible men of every community to shrink their plain duty as regards the whisky traffic, and leave the "burden and heat of the day" to be borne by one or more who go where duty calls, regardless of the opinion of those who small brains and smaller souls.
